

Can I Buy You A Beer

Rick McGee

Verse 1

Stepped inside our 'ole gathering place
When in town it was the rule
On edge, I'd see a familiar face
Been a while since I was old school
A past that I had nearly erased
Might be him sitting on that stool
We once were the best of friends
Got disconnected, been such fools

Pre-Chorus 1

I wandered up and swung him round
No longer knew how to play it cool
And I said, hey

Chorus

Can I buy you a beer
He said the words I longed to hear
The next round will be on me
We can argue who's got three
Order 'em up and make 'em cold
We've got stories to share
And some truth to be told

Verse 2

The barkeep poured a couple of brews
As the memories flooded my mind
I cried at one and laughed at two
And knew that we would find
A way for us to break through
Lost time we had to unwind
We spoke of guys and gals we knew
And the one I'd left behind

Bold = Female vocal

Bold + Italic = male and female vocal

Pre-Chorus 2

I felt a vibe shift the floor
As she walked through that front door
And I whispered, hey

Repeat Chorus

Verse 3

She caught my eye and stopped
My nerves a wreck my eyes all wet
The music paused as I got up
The moment here, she hadn't moved yet
I lowered my head in shame
Her eyes still young her smile so bright
She ran to me said there's no blame
The three of us all spent the night

Pre-Chorus 3

Once again, feeling the same
Not another soul in sight
And she said, hey

Last Chorus

'Bout time you came here
Those were the words I needed to hear
The next round will be on me
We can argue who's got three
Order 'em up and make 'em cold
We've got stories to share
And some truth to be told

Tag

We've got stories to share
And some truth to be told