

Little Bit

Every day we play peek-a-boo.
You reveal more about you
I can see a part of me
Shaping your personality
You tug my heart, grab my hair
Cry at times, but I don't care
Please my sweet, sleep tonight
I'll meet you at morning light

My dear Emmet

I hope you learn a little bit
I know you'll play a little bit
You'll have to work a little bit
To make your way, then one fine day
Find your perfect fit, my dear Emmet

When we play hide and seek
I'll wonder where you'll go
Will you paddle up the creek
Or, sneak away on tippy toes
Will you climb mountain peaks
Or, swim with fish down below
Will you break the hitting streak
Or, learn to play piano
Whichever path you seek
We're here for you in Chicago

Chorus

Instrumental

Take the road that zigs and zags
Straight lines are not exciting
Be humble, try not to brag
It's a style that's more inviting
Ask questions, be curious
Please keep an open mind
For your best life experience
Remember to always be kind

Chorus
